

Delaware Resources for Human Trafficking Survivors

The Salvation Army, Delaware

The Salvation Army's Delaware's Restoration Now program provides emergency shelter and trauma informed, intensive case management to those who are adult victims of Sex and Labor Trafficking.

- Contact:

Lauren Arnold

Anti Human Trafficking Program Manager,
Salvation Army, Delaware State Office

lauren.arnold@use.salvationarmy.org

302-472-0743- direct

302-256-1511-cell

Meet Me at the Well Foundation

Meet Me at the Well provides highly individualized support for adult survivors of human trafficking, through scholarships, trauma sensitive employment readiness, and unique strengths-based mentorships.

- Contact:

Diana Suchodolski

Executive Director,
Meet me at the Well Foundation

diana.suchodolski@thewellde.org

Main: 302-219-0127 (text and voicemail capability)

Zoë Ministries

The mission of Zoë Ministries is to provide safety, healing, and advocacy for those impacted or potentially impacted by sex trafficking. Our programming consists of preventive education through curriculum and equine mentorship, clinical counseling, community awareness and professional training, as well as the opening of our residential therapeutic group home, known as Hannah's House. The home will be licensed for 6 females, ages 12-17. The target open date is Fall 2023.

- Contact:

Yolanda (Schlabach) Montgomery, Ed.D.

Executive Director

Zoë Ministries

ymontgomery@zoe-delaware.org

Phone # Zoë Ministries: 302-745-1157