

DELAWARE HOSPITALS

ECONOMIC VALUE

Hospitals' contribution to their communities extends far beyond the host of essential medical services we provide. Delaware hospitals and health systems provide a range of community benefit programs, as well as free and discounted care that allows all community members to access needed health care services. Delaware hospitals also serve as economic anchors and rank as the largest private sector employers in the state, as well as the largest private sector employer in each county within the state.

23,000
HOSPITAL
JOBS

45,900
Support more than 45,900
direct and indirect jobs.

$72,090

AVERAGE SALARY of a Delaware health care worker. Total annual payroll of Delaware hospitals is over $1.6 billion

HOSPITALS GENERATE

$57 Million

OF STATE AND LOCAL TAXES.

$3 Billion

In addition to direct employment,
HOSPITAL'S TOTAL EXPENSES include goods and services and total more than $3.24 billion.

$6 Billion

The effect of hospitals total expenses on the total output of the state economy is $6,041,665,769.

$348.9 Million

The amount DE hospitals contributed statewide in community benefit spending (includes charity care and programs to improve the health of local communities).

